RE: Charity Game Night License

Enclosed is your approved Charity Game Night License, Number 120974.

The Charity Game Night event is authorized only for the day, time frame and location designated on the license. Enclosed with your license is a copy of the Charity Gaming Summary Report. Additional copies can be printed from the Indiana Gaming Commission website www.in.gov/igc by clicking on Charity Gaming under IGC Divisions and then clicking on forms.

Only those members listed under the Operator Section of your application or any additional operator list attached to your application will be listed on the license.

To redeem a prize of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) or more IC 4-32.2-5-24 requires (1) the winner to provide their printed name, signature, and date of birth to the qualified organization conducting the pull tab, punchboard, or tip board game; and (2) the qualified organization must verify the identity of the prize winner using any reasonable means the qualified organization considers necessary.

When a change to your license is necessary, i.e. operator changes, address of the facility changes or the day and time changes, you must complete form CG-AM, License Amendment Request. A fee of twenty-five dollars ($25) will be assessed when processing an amendment request that requires a change to a license. An amendment request to change workers will not require the twenty-five dollar ($25) fee. Please allow thirty (30) days for processing.

Pursuant to 68 IAC 21-4-1(a), your organization must open and maintain one separate and segregated checking account for charity gaming purposes. Proceeds from all charity gaming activities must be deposited into this single account. All expenses related to the charity gaming activity as well as any other allowable expenses must be paid for by check from this account.

Remember, all licensed supplies, devices or equipment must be purchased from a distributor that is licensed by the Indiana Gaming Commission. A list of licensed distributors is available on our website under Licensed Manufacturer and Distributors.
